

Y-LAB EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

An Expression of Interest for a position on the ARA's Young Leaders' Advisory Board (Y-LAB) must include:

1. a statement of at least 250 words (maximum 500 words) outlining the nominee's future vision and priorities for rail
2. CV (maximum two pages)
3. a simple two-minute video of the nominee expressing their thoughts and fresh ideas for the future of rail. (NOTE: the video can be completed on a mobile phone. Videos will be reviewed based on the content/statements by the applicant, not whether it is professionally edited).
4. Written consent of the nominee's employer, including support to attend all meetings and agreement to meet any travel, accommodation and incidental costs involved through participation on Y-LAB.

Nominee Criteria

To be eligible to submit an Expression of Interest, nominees must:

- be 35 years or under at 31 December 2019
- be currently employed by an ARA member company
- commit to a term of appointment of either one or two years.

Selection Criteria

Nominations will be considered according to the following criteria:

- Demonstrated experience, involvement in and commitment to the rail industry
- Quality and clarity of written submission
- Quality and clarity of verbal submission via video
- Quality of ideas – clear understanding of a challenge or challenges facing the industry, provision of creative and innovate solutions
